The Related Group celebrates 1100 Millecento's' Completion with a rooftop Soiree in the heart of brickell. Celebration In Honor of Paolo Pininfarina, Automotive and Interior Designer

MIAMI —1100 Millecento Residences [2], the highly anticipated high-rise in Brickell from The Related Group [3], celebrated the property's completion with an exclusive event on the tower's roof top poolside terrace and clubrooms.

The 42-story luxury tower features a second full level of amenities on the 9th floor, including billiards, library, party room, theatre, spa, children's play room, fitness center, pool deck and zero-edge pool all wrapped with an expansive terrace to take in the views of the city and Biscayne Bay.

Paolo Pininfarina [4], CEO of the eponymous Italian design firm known primarily for high-end sports cars, designed the interiors for Millecento - his first high rise residential project in the world. Over 60% of the residences have been delivered to its purchasers.

Guests enjoyed Italian inspired light bites and sounds while taking in the stunning sunset over Biscayne Bay and the Miami skyline.

Notable Guests: Paolo Pininfarina, Chairman and Designer, Pininfarina SpA; Jorge M. Pérez, CEO and Chairman, The Related Group; Marc Sarnoff, City of Miami Commissioner; Alice N. Bravo, Deputy City Manager; The Related Group, President Condominium Division, The Related Group; Sonia Figueroa, Senior Vice President, The Related Group.
